PUBLIC COMMENT:

Keith Walworth – People have been deceived into thinking the village is going broke. The Plante & Moran study was referenced in the recall rebuttal and is not yet finished.

Dan Coldren – The newspaper refers to the “Good Old Boys”, which must make the current council the “New Kids on the Block”. If the village is in dire financial straits how can we afford to have an attorney attend every meeting? Mr. McKenney did not attend every meeting. Are we cutting costs by firing everyone before the study is finished? Every time we come to meetings it is amateur night.

Don Emch – Give the new council members a chance to do their job. Corruption is running rampant and people are angry and it’s at the higher level. When things flip everyone gets upset but change is difficult.

Greg Konkle – Receives no services that could not be provided by the county.

Delores Dearborn – They were elected fairly, if you don’t like it move.

Steve Yanchasz – We need to find a middle ground and work for the village. 20% of the people voted and you get what you vote for.

Cindy Johnson – Part of the town looks great and part looks tacky. There are too many junk cars. We need to clean our backyards, front yards and make our community clean. We need to work together.
